Mr. Bruce H. Hasenkamp
Director, President's Commission
on White House Fellowships
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Bruce:

Thank you for your kind and thoughtful letter and I can only repeat what I have said in the past about the White House Fellowship program. I am a staunch supporter of it and feel that it provides both the Government and the participants with opportunities for an exchange of ideas and experiences which are rich and rewarding.

The CIA would be most willing to accept a White House Fellow for a tour of duty. Such an individual would of course require security clearance for access to sensitive information.

Sincerely,

George Bush

Dear George:

Any American who cares deeply about the quality of his government must say two things upon learning that you are leaving-- that this nation and its people have benefited immeasurably from and thank you for your long, varied, and distinguished service; and you will be missed.

I can say that as well for the White House Fellowship program of which you have been (and I hope will continue to be) a stalwart supporter and enthusiast. The Fellows who have met with you have been greatly enriched by the experience, and those who have been in this job have valued your enthusiasm for and frequent help to the program.

I regret that your departure means we will not have the opportunity of assigning a White House Fellow to you next year. I should like to keep alive the possibility of a Fellow's being placed with the Director of Central Intelligence, however, and would appreciate your mentioning it to your successor, when named, so that I may follow up with a conversation about it with him or her in April, when I meet with all those to whom the next class of Fellows may be assigned. Whatever you can do to pave the way will be greatly appreciated.

Again, many thanks for your considerable and valued support and help. I look forward to our paths continuing to cross or coincide in the years to come.

With best wishes,

Cordially,

Bruce H. Hasenkamp
Director

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : Michael J. Malanick
Acting Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT : White House Fellowships

Sir:

1. You may recall that last July when we were asked about participating in the White House Fellows program we advised you that, while we did not have a firm policy governing the situation, we saw no reason why we shouldn't accept a qualified and security-cleared candidate for a tour of duty with us. Further, the Office of General Counsel has no legal objection to such an arrangement. Therefore, we suggest that you mention our views to your successor as Bruce Hasenkamp requests in his letter to you.

2. We have prepared a reply for your signature to Bruce telling him of your intentions.

Dear George:

Many thanks for taking the time to meet with the White House Fellows.

Your remarks regarding the role and functions of the CIA and the current challenges it faces were most interesting. Needless to say, the group found the session most stimulating and productive, and they were delighted of having the opportunity to meet with you and other members of your staff.

Thank you again for taking the time to meet with the group. By popular consensus the session is considered to be a highlight of the Fellowship year.

Sincerely,

Bruce H. Hasenkamp
